3.02 The parties acting by and through their representatives shall from time to time meet to confer, discuss, exchange information and make recommendations with respect to rates, charges, practices, legislation, regulations, port administration and on matters of concern to the public port industry.

3.03 The parties shall from time to time sponsor, discuss, prepare or support and join in any petition, testimony or other expression for presentation or submission to any judicial or legislative tribunal, governmental or public body, the media or other industry associations.

ARTICLE IV Tariff Compliance

4.01 The parties agree to assess and collect all rates and/or charges for or in connection with traffic handled by them within the scope of this agreement, strictly in accordance with the rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations and/or practices set forth in their respective applicable tariffs or the applicable tariffs in effect for their respective regional jurisdiction, and that they will not in any respect deviate from or violate any of the terms of said tariffs; and that no rates or charges assessed or collected pursuant to such tariffs shall be directly or indirectly, illegally or unlawfully refunded or rebated in whole or in part in any manner or by any device; provided, however, this agreement to assess and collect rates and/or charges set forth in their respective tariffs, specifically does not apply to special contractual arrangements involving leases, volume discounts, cost sharing, cost saving or other contractual obligations.

Deleted: Section 15 agreements,

4.02 The parties agree to consult with one another with relation to and to establish minimum port terminal rates and charges for or in connection with services and facilities, including but not limited to, wharfage (tollage), dockage, sheddage, free time, demurrage, usage, storage, handling, loading and unloading, licenses, preferential assignments, and other privileges, charges, classifications, rules, regulations and practices. Except as to contractual arrangements as set out in Section 4.01 above, it is expressly understood that rate setting authority pursuant to this agreement is limited to the establishment of minimum rates or charges and the parties hereto must publish in their individual terminal tariffs and assess to all users alike either the minimum rate established by the Conference or an exact rate above that established by the Conference.
